Portions of Menlo Park, Mountain View, Los Altos and Los Altos Hills will be fogged tomorrow to get rid of West Nile Virus-carrying mosquitoes, officials said yesterday.

The fogging will occur tomorrow in Menlo Park between 9 p.m. and 5 a.m. Thursday morning. Fogging in Mountain View, Los Altos and Los Altos Hills will also begin tomorrow between 11 p.m. and 4 a.m. Thursday. A dead crow was found last week in Menlo Park that tested positive for West Nile virus. Yesterday, the San Mateo County Vector Control District found mosquitoes that also tested positive for the virus in the same area. The chemical being used is called [See FOGGINGS, page 22]
